LEARN MORE ABOUT THE AMERICAN DREAM INSTITUTE AND OUR ASSOCIATED ORGANIZATION, AMERICAN DREAM FEDERAL ACTION:

Budding Republican megadonor Ryan Salame quietly shelled out $13.4 million of his personal fortune to boost 15 GOP congressional candidates in the just-concluded 2022 primaries. Salame, a 29-year-old cryptocurrency mogul...decided to get involved in politics this year because he believes the federal government is gravely unprepared for the next pandemic. So, Salame launched a super PAC to boost like-minded candidates in GOP primaries. On average, Salame invested nearly $900,000 in each candidate's primary.
